SUPPLEMENT TO THE

South-Carolina GAZETTE.

[NUMB. 1557.]

MONDAY November 12, 1764.

☞ CHARLES-TOWN, Printed by PETER TIMOTHY, at his Office in TRADD-STREET.

By whom every Branch of the PRINTING BUSINESS is executed with Correctneſs and Diſpatch, in the neateſt manner—ADVERTISEMENTS are taken in—and ſmall HAND-BILLS done on the ſhorteſt Notice.

LONDON, JUNE 28.

HEY write from Berlin, that a very important negociation is on foot between the king of Pruſſia and the Margrave of Bareith; the principal object of which is, as ſome people pretend, the ceſſion of the Margraviate of Bareith to the king of Pruſſia, on certain conditions ſtipulated between them.

JUNE 30.

Letters from Paris ſay, that by accounts from Nancy they hear, that the celebrated dwarf of king Staniſlaus died lately of a fit of the cholic.—[This dwarf was remarkably low in ſtature, and had been more than once ſerved up to table in a pie.]

JULY 3.

This day the right hon. Lord Warkworth, eldeſt ſon to the Earl of Northumberland, was married to Lady Anne Stuart, ſecond daughter to the Earl of Bute.

JULY 5.

As the benefit ariſing from the ſettlement of St. John's iſland in America, conſidering the climate, muſt greatly depend on the fiſhery carried on there, we are informed proper agents are gone over to engage a ſufficient number of experienced perſons from Nantucket, Boſton, and ſome other parts in America, where numbers get their living merely by fiſhing, to ſettle in St. John's.

It is ſaid that a great number of ingenious tradeſmen and artizans, who have long languiſhed in confinement for ſmall ſums, have petitioned the lords of trade, that their hard caſe may be laid before the parliament, in order that they may obtain their diſcharge, on condition of tranſplanting themſelves and their arts, to his majeſty's new ſettlements in America.

JULY 10.

It is reported that ſome extraordinary alterations will take place, ſoon after the return of a great perſonage from abroad.

William Popplewell, Eſq; late an officer on board the Rippon man of war, is appointed comptroller of his majeſty's cuſtoms in Florida

Friday the wife of Mr. King, of Chertſey in Surry, was delivered of a fine boy; it is remarkable the mother of this child is upwards of 60 years old, and the father near 72; and ſhe has had a child every year for theſe three years laſt paſt.

We are informed that a few days ſince died at his farm in Devonſhire, Mr. Henry Walton, an eminent farmer and cyder-maker: Among the many legacies which he bequeathed, having no relations, is the following remarkable one: "I give and bequeath unto JOHN WILKES, Eſq; late member of Ayleſbury in Bucks, the ſum of Five Thouſand Pounds, as an acknowledgement to him, who bravely defended the conſtitutional liberties of his country, and checked the dangerous progreſs of arbitrary power."

JULY 12.

It is ſaid the minority are now increaſed to upwards of 300 noblemen and gentlemen of fortune, whoſe names are all regiſtered in a book for that purpoſe.

A frigate and a ſloop will ſhortly ſail to the South-Seas, in order to make new diſcoveries in that part of the world.

The ſcheme for calling in the paper currency in the Britiſh ſettlements in America, it is ſaid, will be attended with ſo many diſadvantages to trade, that it will defer its being put in practice at leaſt for ſome years.

JULY 14.

We are aſſured a certain great commoner has, within theſe few days, waited on a great perſonage at Richmond, where he continued upwards of two hours.

The following report is talked of at the weſt end of the town, but with what foundation we know not. That a treaty of marriage is on foot between the right hon. lord Montague, eldeſt ſon to the earl of Cardigan, and the right hon. Lady Jane Stuart, ſecond daughter to the earl of Bute. That the earl of Cardigan will be created a marquis of Great-Britain, by the name and ſtile of marquis of Montague. That the earl of Northumberland is to be created duke of Northumberland, and marquis of Piercy. And that lord Mount-Stuart, eldeſt ſon to the earl of Bute, is to be created duke of Kent.

JULY 17.

The noble perſons whom it is ſaid there is an intention of creating marquiſes are believed to be the following:—The earl of Northumberland, whoſe ſon (lord Warkworth) is married to a daughter of the earl of Bute.—The earl of Cardigan, whoſe ſon (lord Brudenell) is to be married to another daughter of the earl of Bute—And George viſcount Townſhend.

Letters from Paris inform us, that there is actually trying, before the parliament, a cauſe concerning the validity of marriages contracted by proteſtants. This caſe, ſo intereſting to mankind in general, as well to the reformed of France in particular, is defended by M. Elie de Brumont, a counſellor eminent for ſeveral tracts which have been well received by the public, and more ſo for the generous defence he made in favour of the unfortunate widow and children of Calas.

JULY 19.

We are credibly informed that the late Earl of Bath, a few days before his deceaſe, ſent for the general, his brother, to conſult on the moſt proper meaſures for the diſpoſal of his eſtate and effects; but inſtead of going, the general generouſly ſent him word, that he might diſpoſe of his eſtate as he thought proper, Providence having already endowed him with a fortune more than ſufficient for the remaining part of his life. It is ſaid his Lordſhip died poſſeſſed of near a million ſterling.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint the Hon. Capt. William Harvie, of the 44th regiment, Capt. Philip Skene, of the 27th regiment, and Capt. Thomas Moncreiffe, of the 55th regiment, to be majors of Brigade to his Majeſty's forces, ſerving in North America.

The temples of liberty at Stowe and Hayes have this week been viſited by divers votaries from the M——y club; her avenues were ſeen to be crouded with flying coronets, by which it appears that ſomething very intereſting to the affairs of that goddeſs is now upon the carpet.

We are informed that great diſputes have lately happened between a noble duke and a great lord, ſaid to be occaſioned by a grant lately made out for ſome land in a certain county.

Letters from Toulon, dated the 28th, adviſe, that M. de l'Eſcourt ſailed from Breſt the 5th of May laſt for Cadiz, from whence he was to ſail on a ſecret deſtination, with the Sceptre of 70 guns, and the Solitaire and Union of 64.

JULY 21.

Hugh Griffith, Eſq; late commiſſary at Guadaloupe, is appointed ordnance ſtore-keeper, and paymaſter for the iſlands of Grenades, St. Vincent, Tobago, and Dominique.

Some time ſince a man went to ſee the Crown and Regalia in the Tower; he was greatly pleaſed at the ſight, and the deſcription he gave, made ſuch an impreſſion on his wife (who was big with child) that a few days ſince ſhe was delivered of a child at the Lying-in-Hoſpital in Alderſgate-ſtreet, which had the mark of a Crown, and the letters G. R. on each ſide of it, plainly imprinted between its ſhoulders.

JULY 24.

It is ſaid the court of France hath come to a reſolution to call in and diſcharge the Canadian bills of ordnance, at the rate of 25 per cent. (the original ſum amounted to about 400,000l. ſterl.) and to conciliate them into the government ſecurities, bearing 4 per cent.

Several antient forts in the iſlands of Orkney, which have been mouldering to decay ever ſince the year 1715, are going to be repaired, and put in a better ſtate of defence.

JULY 26.

His majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint —— Stuart, Eſq; deputy-commiſſary of the muſters of his majeſty's forces in North-America.

We hear that lord Mount Stuart, eldeſt ſon of the earl of Bute, will ſoon have a conſiderable employment conferred upon him.

Edward Wortley Montague, Eſq; brother in-law to lord Bute, and member of parliament for Huntingdon, it is ſaid, will ſhortly be created a peer, and go abroad in a public character.

We are informed that the minority-club-liſt has, this week, been augmented with five reſpectable names, which are ſaid to impart great honour to that ſide of the queſtion.

JULY 28.

His majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint General Crauford to be lieutenant-governor of Minorca, in the room of —— Johnſton, Eſq; promoted.

We are informed that a ſcheme is under conſideration for ſending the moſt healthful of the female convicts for the future to ſome of our new acquiſitions.

JULY 31.

We hear that his majeſty has been pleaſed to make a new eſtabliſhment, and enlarge the endowment of the Royal Academy at Woolwich, for the education of the gentlemen cadets, to qualify them for commiſſions in the army; and that the Marquis of Granby is appointed governor of it, and Colonel Patterſon lieutenant-governor, under his lordſhip.

On Sunday the 15th inſtant, a French gentleman of diſtinction renounced the errors of Popery at St. Martin's Church in the fields; and on Sunday laſt his lady did the ſame at the ſaid Church.

We hear that a ſurvey will ſhortly be made of all the principal ſea ports and fortifications in Ireland, in order to put that kingdom into a good ſtate of defence in caſe of any emergency.

The ports of the two Daniſh iſlands of St. Thomas and St. John, in America are declared free.

A writer in one of the periodical papers, ſays, "There is ſomething very critical in the number forty-five, eſpecially when applied to the people of Scotland. They have forty-five repreſentatives in parliament; they rebelled in the year forty-five; and got an Engliſhman expelled for writing the North-Briton No. forty five.—Perhaps I might have carried my remarks a little farther, and added, with ſufficient juſtice, that tho' they do not pay above a forty-fifth of the public taxes, they have nevertheleſs full forty-five parts in fifty out of all our valuable employments."

On the 19th of this month, died at Paris, in the 56th year of his age, the Duke de Fitz-James, a ſpurious branch of the Stuart family.

AUGUST 2.

Yeſterday George Amyand, Eſq; William Gordon, Eſq; and Dr. Duncan, Phyſician to his majeſty, all kiſſed his majeſty's hand, on being created baronets.

They write from Legborn, that two perſons, ſuppoſed to be deputies from the malcontents of Corſica, paſſed through that city on the 12th ult. with intent, as has been reported, to ſolicit an audience of his royal highneſs the duke of York, before he leaves Italy. They took the rout for Turin, and appeared to be well received by ſeveral Engliſh of diſtinction.

We are aſſured, that a ſociety is formed by ſeveral gentlemen of independent fortunes, for putting a ſtop to the great ſtrides making towards deſpotiſm, and to contrive ſome meaſures, if poſſible, for eaſing the labouring and manufacturing part of the nation, already too much burthened by impoſts and taxes.

It is reported that a child, of which a woman was delivered at the Lying-in-Hoſpital, in Alderſgate-ſtreet, and which had the mark of a Crown and the letters G. R. on each ſide of it, plainly imprinted between the ſhoulders, has 100l. per annum ſettled on it.

AUGUST 4.

We are aſſured that the late viſits paid to the Earl Temple, at his ſeat at Stowe, far ſurpaſſed any thing of the kind that has been made to any one nobleman for this century paſt, and what made an addition to the grandeur, was the appearance of ſeveral nobility, whoſe company was leaſt expected.

It is obſerved, that ſince laſt Chriſtmas, there has been no leſs than ſeven proſecutions carried on againſt the Preſs, by informations in the court of King's-Bench.

AUGUST 8.

A large quantity of naval ſtores are now getting ready to be ſhipped for Genoa, to ſupply ſuch Engliſh men of war as may for the future touch at that port.

A great many workmen of different branches are ſoon to embark for Minorca, where, it is ſaid, his excellency general Crauford intends to ſet on foot divers improvements for the benefit of the iſland.

The French admiralty have ordered, that, in the future conſtruction of ſhips of war, the immenſe load of ornamental figures and gilding, which uſed to encumber their ſterns and quarters, may be omitted. It is computed, that this ſingle article will be a future ſaving of ſome millions of livres.

It is ſaid a packet is going to be eſtabliſhed between Falmouth and the Groyne; which the Spaniards are now convinced will be of equal benefit to both nations.

AUGUST 9.

A meeting of the truſtees for repairing and amending the turnpike roads, in the county of Surry and Suſſex, was held on Saturday laſt at Croyden, when, O Grief of Griefs! it appeared that their loſs by the Rev. Mr. Kidgell, after the ſale of his furniture at Godſtone, amounted to £. 105, 9l. 6d. The conduct of that divine having raiſed a juſt abhorrence in the breaſts of the gentlemen preſent, who were very numerous, James Morris, Eſq; was choſen a truſtee; and, at the requeſt of a worthy Baronet, it was inſerted in the minutes, 'In the room of the Rev. Mr. Kidgell, who is run away indebted 'to his truſt.'

It is confidently ſaid, that a noble lord, well known in the political world, applied to the late biſhop of London for the living of St. James's, for the rev. Mr. Kidgell; and being told his lordſhip had promiſed to another, renewed his application the next day in the name of a great perſon, and expreſſed his hopes that his lordſhip would beſtow the living on one who had done the public ſuch ſignal ſervices; but the biſhop, inſenſible to the gentleman's merits, gave it notwithſtanding to the preſent worthy rector.

——Martin, Eſq; father of Samuel Martin, Eſq; who fought the duel with Mr. Wilkes, has lately had a conſiderable place given him in the Weſt-Indies.

The ſettlement of St. John's iſland, which for ſome time paſt ſeemed to have been dropt, we are now informed is again under conſideration, but on a plan much more conſtitutional than by military tenures.

We hear that if any perſons can tell of any valuable reverſions in the gift of the crown undiſpoſed of, that they may have a good premium for ſuch intelligence; as there are ſome few of the children of the gentlemen now in power ſtill unprovided for.

It is ſaid, by the late grant procured by lord B. he can deprive the duke of B. of a manor, which has been in his family ſome hundred years; and by which he can ſo incommode his grace, as to render his manor very diſagreeable, even while his grace poſſeſſes the leaſe, which, it is ſaid, is only for thirteen years. Almoſt the whole county is now in the poſſeſſion of theſe two noblemen.

A few days ſince lord Allen, who was ordered to join his regiment at Minorca, embarked at Portſmouth for that place.—He is a member of parliament, and one of the minority.

Many people imagine, that as ſoon all the reverſions of any value are found out and ſecured, the great conteſt will end; as there will then be nothing worth contending for but the mere pay of ſervice. Should that opinion be well grounded, it is poſſible the doors of the ſtript houſe will then be left open to thoſe who are preſſing to get in, and both parties will become ſatisfied, one with what they got, and the other with what they have gotten; ſo that each ſide may enjoy the ſatisfaction of ſaying, according to the old proverb, Let him laugh who wins.

AUGUST 10.

There is now a talk of ſending over a freſh detachment of navy lieutenants from the half-pay, to command a chain of armed cutters on the Spaniſh main, and to protect our logwood traders in the gulph of Honduras.

It has been computed by thoſe who are good judges in Weſt-India affairs, that by cramping the trade with the Spaniards in America, we have already been ſufferers in the ſum of 100,000 hard piſtoles.

The Glovers are taking meaſures to procure a parliamentary ſtop to the importation of foreign gloves. It is computed that we have 12,000 of our own people dependent on that manufacture; who are now in danger of being reduced to beggary by our thoughtleſs encouragement of foreigners.

It is ſaid the ſame diſpoſition will be taken at Jerſey and Guernſey, for the benefit of his majeſty's revenue, as thoſe lately ordered with regard to the Iſle of Man; the former having been found to be the great ſtorehouſes from whence immediately flow that inundation of French manufactures ſo injurious to this kingdom.

AUGUST 11.

It is rumoured that a certain noble lord, lately gone abroad, having been unlucky at gaming, is going to ſpend the remainder of his days in a monaſtery, his ſervants being all diſcharged.

We are inform'd that a very ſtrong memorial was this morning ſent off for France, touching the full payment of the Canada bills to Engliſh ſubjects.

Upon an average, it has been computed that 30,000 dollars a month have been imported from North-America only (not to mention the Britiſh iſlands) ſince the peace; one million of which have been ſent out of the kingdom by a certain company, never to return.

☞ All who favour the Printer of this Gazette with ADVERTISEMENTS, are deſired to ſignify at Foot how long they would have them continued; otherwiſe they will be inſerted, as uſual, in only three ſucceſſive Papers.

LONDON, SEPTEMBER 12.

St. James's, Sept. 11. In answer to the representations made by the court of France, demanding immediate satisfaction and reparation for the acts of violence committed on the first of June last, by the commander of a French ship of war, in conjunction with other French vessels, at one of the Turks Islands; the court of France has disavowed the said proceedings, has disclaimed all intention or desire of acquiring or conquering the Turks Island; and has given orders to the Comte d'Estaign, governor of St. Domingo, to cause the said islands to be immediately abandoned on the part of the French, to restore every thing therein to the condition in which it was on the first of June last, and to make reparation of the damages which any of his Majesty's shall be found to have sustained in consequence of the said proceedings, according to an estimation to be forthwith settled by the said governor with his majesty's governor of Jamaica: and a duplicate of the said orders has been delivered to his majesty's said ambassador, who has transmitted the same to his majesty's secretary of state. [London Gaz.]

SEPTEMBER 14.

The committee for the relief of the Palatines met yesterday at Batson's coffee-house, in consequence of a summons from the treasurer, who had received an immediate answer by letter from Lord Halifax, acquainting them, his Majesty had most graciously granted the full request of their petition, and that the Palatines should be sent to and established in South-Carolina; and also that 150 stand of arms should be delivered out for the use of the said German protestants: Whereupon the committee resolved to publish proposals for contracting with commanders of ships for their immediate passage and maintainance to South-Carolina.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

By the Honourable WILLIAM BULL, Esq; Lieutenant-Governour and Commander in Chief, in and over the said Province, and Vice-Admiral of the same.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it having been represented to his Majesty, that great Disputes had arisen, and that much Mischief and Confusion were likely to ensue, among his Subjects, on the Frontiers of the Provinces of North and South-Carolina, from the Want of a certain known Line of Jurisdiction between the said Provinces; his Majesty was most graciously pleased, in order to prevent all further Disputes of the like Nature, and to preserve the Peace and Tranquility of both the said Provinces, until a perpetual Line of Partition between them shall be finally determined by his Majesty, to signify his Royal Will and Pleasure, that THE LINE ALREADY AGREED UPON, AND IN PART SET OUT by Commissioners appointed by both the said Provinces in the Year 1735, in Consequence of his late Majesty's Instructions, being continued to the Thirty-fifth Degree of North-Latitude, and from thence in a due West Course, until it reaches the eastern Limits of the Lands claimed by the Catawba Indians, shall be a temporary Line of Jurisdiction between the said Provinces, and that the said Line should be run by Commissioners appointed by the Governors of the said Provinces respectively. I HAVE THEREFORE thought fit, by and with the Advice of his Majesty's Honourable Council, to issue this my Proclamation, notifying, that in Consequence thereof, Commissioners from both the said Provinces have run, and plainly marked, the said temporary Line of Jurisdiction; hereby strictly enjoining and requiring all and singular the Judges, Justices, Marshals, Bailiffs, Constables, or any other Officers, civil or military, within this Government, not to presume to exercise their Jurisdiction, or to execute any Part of their respective Authorities, beyond the Limits of the said Line. And I do hereby further signify, to all whom it may concern, that it is His Majesty's express Will and Pleasure, that no Settlement whatever be made, nor Jurisdiction exercised, upon the Lands claimed by the said Catawba Indians, until the said Claim shall be finally adjusted; and all Persons are hereby strictly commanded to pay a due Regard thereto, and conduct themselves accordingly.

In Testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my Hand, and caused the Great Seal of this his Majesty's Province of South-Carolina, to be affixed this Ninth Day of November, Anno Domini 1764, and in the fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

WILLIAM BULL.

By his Honour's Command,
GEORGE JOHNSTON, Dep. Secr.

It is said a stop will be put next session to the further exportation of corn spirits to North-America.

Several important improvements in the island of Minorca are now upon the carpet; to effect which, it is said, a large train of artillery, and three companies of matrosses from Woolwich, will soon embark for that place.

AUGUST 18.

The advices to the ministry of the French having taken Turk's island, come from governor Lyttelton at Jamaica; by which it appears, that this proof of French politicks, and French faith, was given us by the famous count d'Estaing, who some time since sailed from Brest with a squadron on pretence of going to St. Domingo. His cruelties to the English at Bencoolen, in the East-Indies, marked him for a monster of human kind; and he proved himself to be a true Frenchman by afterwards breaking his parole of honour in England. The court of France, instead of doing justice to his crimes, as all the world expected, replaced him in the rank of Chef d'Escadre; and it now appears on what errand they sent him.

We are informed, that the attorney, in behalf of a noble personage, has assured the plaintiffs, in the cause relating to the imprisonment of the Rev. Mr. Entick, Arthur Beardmore, Esq; and the rest of the parties taken into custody, concerning the printing of the Monitor, that appearances will certainly be entered next term, in the Court of Common Pleas, to the several actions that have been long commenced against the said noble personage, on account of the said parties imprisonment.

AUGUST 21.

Fresh instructions are preparing, to be forthwith sent to the several commanders of our ships of war on the West-India station.

AUGUST 23.

Last Sunday his excellency Robert Melvill, Esq; set out for Portsmouth to embark on board the Charming-Nelly storeship, for his government of the Grenades. A great number of gentlemen go passengers in the same ship.

We hear the sum of 10,000 l. sterling will be granted next sessions to each of the provinces of Carolina, Georgia, and the two Floridas, to be applied for the better encouragement of the growth and culture of raw silk in America; the government being determined to maintain, if possible, the balance of this valuable manufacture in our hands.

It is said that several important improvements will be made to the islands of Guernsey and Jersey, for which purpose an exact survey of both places will soon be taken.

The late deceased hon. Henry Bilson Legge, Esq; was, when a youth, a midshipman in the royal navy; but by his distinguished merit and great abilities, he raised himself from that station, and went thro' the various employments of government, till his late majesty thought fit to appoint him to the high office of chancellor of the exchequer; which great and important trust he held, during the most critical and dangerous times, with much honour to himself and atisfaction to his country.

AUGUST 25.

Three large transports sailed from the Tagus the 21st of last month, with troops and artillery for the island of Madera, which his Portuguese majesty is resolved to render impracticable to all future attempts of an enemy.

AUGUST 28.

They write from Petersburg, that by a late edict of the Empress, great encouragement is granted to Jewish families settling in her Majesty's Northern dominions; which has already induced great numbers of them to resort to that capital, in order to be supplied with proper necessaries to settle in Siberia.

According to the plan laid down for the canal, which is to join the Rhine and the Meuse, the cut for it is to be made entirely through his Prussian majesty's territories, so that no other power can interfere with him in the tolls to be paid for passing along it.

All the English settlements in the channel of Bahama are ordered to be put in a thorough state of defence.

We are informed that there are at present in the Isle of Man near an hundred tons of tea, fifty thousand gallons of wine and brandy, large magazines of Irish wool, and large quantities of other equally important French commodities, now hoarded up for the purposes of smuggling; all which, by some new regulations, will be obliged to be duly entered and pay duty, or otherwise confiscated for the benefit of the revenue.

SEPTEMBER 1.

The whale fisheries on the coast of Labrador, Newfoundland, and Hudson's Bay, are now looked upon in so advantageous a light, that we are informed some singular immunities will be granted them next sessions, for their further encouragement: Forty-one large fish have been caught by adventurers from the small island of Nantucket, this season.

SEPTEMBER 4.

On friday the 17th of last month, his royal highness the duke of York, in consequence of an express sent him by his royal highness prince William, by Mr. Harper, embarked on board a ship from Genoa, and landed monday the 20th at Nice, in the king of Sardinia's dominions; from whence he proceeded to Antibes, the first town from Italy in the French king's dominions; from thence to Carren, Avignon, and so to Lions; thence thro' the province of Burgundy, and other parts of France to Calais; an extent in the whole of 1100 miles. His royal highness, for reasons unknown, did not touch at Paris, where prodigious grand fireworks and illuminations were intended, and great preparations made for his reception; the people there expressing a most eager desire to see his royal highness. By the above account it appears, he was only 15 days in coming from Genoa to England; and exactly one year on his travels, as he set out from Saville-house Sept. 1, 1763, and arrived at London Sept. 1, 1764.

His excellency THOMAS BOONE, Esq; is soon to embark for South-Carolina, the affairs which brought that gentleman over having been concluded.

SEPTEMBER 5.

They write from Bristol, that the principal merchants of that city intend to support with all their interest the independent free trade of the North-American colonies, the late unnatural restraint upon which, from their connections with England, has already occasioned some alarms, that if not timely removed, may be attended with many melancholly consequences, with regard to the credit of North-America.

It is rumoured that a certain great personage has miscarried.

It is said a certain great personage has publicly declared his intentions not to be concerned in the least with either side of the question, in the present political disputes now carrying on with so great virulence of altercation by the inns and outs.

SEPTEMBER 7.

They write from Berlin, that the king of Prussia having received, before he set out for Silesia, the melancholly and disagreeable news of the death of prince Ivan, or John, of Russia, in the castle of Schluss nburg, on the 15th of July last, it caused a very great consternation at that court, as it was imagined it was a plot laid to sacrifice that prince for the repose of that empire.

It is currently reported that some considerable removals will soon take place by consent of both parties, in consequence of a certain scheme of mediation offered by a great personage, whose good offices the heads of either will find it their account to accept, in order to restore the public tranquility.

Letters from Petersburgh bring a confirmation of a fire at Cronstadt, which had reduced upwards of 1000 dwelling-houses to ashes; but fortunately no churches, warehouses, or any of the shipping received any damage.

We are credibly informed the parliament will not undergo any further prorogation after their next meeting at Westminster, but proceed immediately to the investigation of divers weighty affairs of the kingdom.

The military forces in the Isle of Providence, we hear, are to be augmented with another independent company of foot, and fifty matrosses.

SEPTEMBER 8.

According to some specimens of the new Porcelain Manufacture at Berlin, which have been brought into Holland, it is very little, if at all inferior to that of Saxony, except in the elegance of painting.

We have now no less than three honourable persons in France in the capacities of ministers and messengers extraordinary, besides secretaries, &c. &c.

ROBERT UPTON.

CHARLES-TOWN,

The following (amongſt other other pieces received, for publication in this paper) has been omitted theſe ſix weeks, merely for want of room.

"ABOUT the month of February laſt, departed "this life, in the 40th year of his age, in "the city of Dublin (of which he was a na- "tive) ROBERT SKIDDY, A. B. a gentle- "man, ſeveral years reſident in Charles- "Town, who gave many proofs of a vi- "vacious extenſive genius, to the pleaſure "of many who had the favour of his acquaintance. His "wit was keen but ſatyric; language flowing; reading ex- "tenſive; converſation pleaſing; manners engaging. Devoted "to the muſes, he rang'd thro' all the flowery wilds of poetry; "and had his judgment been as correct as his expreſſion, he "was well qualified to exhibit human life in many lights, "eſpecially in that particular ſo oft' attempted, but ſeldom "well executed, viz. HUMOUR. He was buried in one of "the churches of Dublin, by the remains of his parents, "and had he liv'd a ſhort time longer, would have "ſucceeded to an eſtate of £. 500 ſterling per annum, after the "death of an uncle 80 years of age.—His death was calm "and reſigned, more like the ſweet ſleep of an infant, than "the pangs of diſſolution."

A gentleman in Charles-Town, who always eſteem'd and favour'd, and who expreſs'd for him uncommon regard, has deſired us to inſert the following dialogue, as a tribute to his memory, after apologizing for its incorrectneſs, owing to the haſte in which it was written.

APOLLO.

THOU enemy to wit!—thy fatal darts
Are ever pointed at ingenious hearts!
Why are my ſons deny'd climact'rick years,
And venerable wreaths of hoary hairs?
Invet'rate foe!—while I, to ſave them, aim,
Thine is, to ſacrifice the ſons of fame!

DEATH.

Say rather—too preſumptuouſly they run,
On rocks of Error, which they ought to ſhun.
Aloft, on wings of hope, they boldly ſoar,
The wilderneſs of fancy to explore,
With "beams of warm imagination play"—
Bask, 'till neglected reaſon melts away;
Then PHAETON-like, impell'd, and loſt in air,
Victims they fall, to folly, or deſpair.

APOLLO.

Had I but power equal to my will,
Not longer death ſhould have the power to kill:
Could I but cure diſeaſes of the ſoul,
Minds, like their product, ſhould thro' ages roll.

DEATH.

Short, and uncertain, is the ſtate of man!—
His mind's unbounded—but his life—a ſpan!
Fitted for all that's heav'nly and ſublime,
How miſapply'd his faculties and time!
Subject of angels pity, mortals grief,
I ſeaſonably fly to his relief.

APOLLO.

O great deſtroyer of the human race,
Thy devaſtations in PARNASSUS ceaſe!—
—ſee here, a trophy of thy ſov'reign ſway,
Snatch'd in the altitude of life away:
The kind companion, ſocial, chearful heart,
Free to receive advice, as to impart—
Of open manners;—ſpirit free and bold,
Young, in EXPERIENCE, tho' in SCIENCE, old:
Conception, Genius, led him by the hand,
Thro' all the labyrinths of fairy land.—
Bleſt with luxuriancy of thought and taſte,
He ſuffer'd uſeful talents to run waſte—
A fruitful ſoil, by nature richly ſown,
Neglected lay thro' fickle fortune's frown!
Reſt, now from every vexation free,
In the bright fields of immortality;
Where, to thy merit, what was here deny'd,
Will to thy virtues amply be ſupply'd:—
How lov'd, or ſlighted, now avails thee not,
By whom regretted, or by whom forgot;
Death, on a level, puts the KING and SLAVE,
And worms know no diſtinction in the grave;—
Securely may thy ſilent aſhes lay,
'Till rais'd reſplendent at the judgment day.
And never may my ſons eccentric run,
But ſtudiouſly the paths of error ſhun;
In all that's pure and upright,—nobly ſhine;
Whate'er is baſe, and impious—decline.—
Should vice and immorality run high,
And men divine and human laws defy;
Should pride and luxury o'erſpread the land,
And few be found corruption to withſtand;
May ne'er be wanting ſuch a pen as thine,
To laſh—expoſe—each venal, baſe deſign;
To hold truth's mirror full to public view,
For profligates, and miſcreants to look to,
Who, void of Virtue, dare to make pretence
To Wiſdom, manners, rectitude and ſenſe;
Yet, while they play the reprobate and fool,
Preſume what's right and juſt to ridicule.
But tho' unfix'd, unhappy, was thy lot,
Thy memory is not totally forgot;—
Still liv'ſt thou in remembrance of a friend,
Who could thy failings blame, thy worth commend;
Who lov'd thee with ſincerity and truth,
Amidſt the ſallies of impetuous youth;
Who knew thy nature—read thy honeſt heart,
And rendered juſtice due to thy deſert;
Who, in his breaſt, thy gems of wit enſhrines,
And to thy ſpirit conſecrates theſe lines W. G.
